on the 15th inst. INCENDIARISM BY ALABAMA WHITE LEAGUERS .- Judge Abrams, probate judge of Sumter county, Alabama, who is at present in this city, has received intelligence that his gin house was burned one week ago Sunday night, with eight bales of cotton, by the White Leaguers. Judge Abrams estimates his loss at from $5,000 to $10,000. THE ALABAMA CLAIMS COMMISSION .- The court of commissioners of the Alabama claims have been in session during the past week at its court rooms, No. 1514 H street, in this city. It has been engaged in preliminary work. A large number of claims have been filed and others are being received through the mails and from atto neys each day, coming from Portland, Boston, New Bedford, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and San Francisco. No trials have yet been had, aithough the judges seem inclined to go forward as promptly as practicable

PERSONAL .- Mrs. F. C. Snead, Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier Journal, and Miss Austine Snead, "Miss Grundy," of the New York press, have taken winter quarters at No. 610 13th street northwest. ... Mr. John T. McElhone, chief of the reporting corps of the House of Representatives, is in the city for a few days. ... Mr. D. R. McKee, of the Associated Press, has returned from his summer trip in the Adirondacks. ... H. T. Crosby, chief clerk of the War department, who has been or a two weeks' trip through the northwestern states, has returned to his desk.

NAVAL Notes .- The Navy department has received dispatches from the U.S. steamer Richmond, at Panama, dated September 25th, and the Omana, at Callao, dated September 3d. The health of all was good. The U.S. steamer Blooklyn, of the north Atlantic fleet, leaves Key West to day for Norfolk, Va. A dispatch has been received at the Navy department that the U.S. steamer Swatara arrived at Hobart Town on the 1st of October, with all well on board. The Swatara, it will be remembered sailed from New York some months ago with parties on board to observe the transit of Venus.

WASHINGTONIANS ABROAD .- The American Register of Paris contains the following names of Washingtonians in that city on the 19th of September: George F. Appleby, E. J. Babcock, E. Z. Brailey, J. Ferber Beale, Sidney S. Eiseman, H. M. Hutchinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Klingle, Alexander P. Morse, Mrs. C. Chase Oldfield, H. C. Pearson, Mrs. F. A. Geneva, September 15-Andrew Laugdon. Naples, September 16-J. Forbes Beale.

THE YELLOW FEVER .- A letter from Pensacola, Florida, where yellow fever has been pre vailing for some weeks, presents a most deplorable picture of the sufferings of the people. It says: "Those who escape the fever stand a good chance of starving to death. * * * There have been more cases and deaths than at Shreveport in proportion to the size of the places. Twenty-five little children have been rpbaned by this terrible epidemic. The most of them are left without any one or thing to support them. The people here will do all they can, but the majority are very peor. We really stand in need of something to eat." -----

POLITICAL NOTES.—The Springfield Republican prints a letter from Geo. M. Stearns, of Chicopee, Mass., declining, for private reasons, o be a candidate for Congress in that district. ... The municipal election in Corinth, Miss., esterday was botly contested, and resulted in complete victory for the conservative ticket. or the first time in eight years. Asker P. Nichols was yesterday nominated for Congress by the democrats of Eric county, N. Y. Charles Place was nominated for Congress by the New Jersey 4th district republican convenlen on Saturday. ... Democratic and independent Congressional conventions were held in he 1st, 2d, and 3d Illinois districts yesterday. Bernard Caulfield was nominated in the 1st, C. . Harrison in the 2d, and J. V. Lemoyne in the 3d district.

THE PHILADELPHIA AND NEW YORK AIR past few days, that the project for completing a new railroad route hence to New York by way of the North Pennsylvania railroad to Yardleyville, on the Delaware, thence to a junction with the Central of New Jersey to Jersey City, had been abandoned by reason of discovered want of authority of law to bridge the Delaware, we learn from officers of the company is without foundation in fact. Those having the project in charge claim authority to cross the Delaware by a bridge, and further that the stock is all taken by strong parties and the money is in hand to pay all contracts as far as made.—Phila. Ledger, Oct. 3d

THE CONNECTIOUT TOWN ELECTIONS .- The elections in Connecticut yesterday were for town officers, and local questions entered largely into the choice of these, so that political lines were not closely adhered to. In classing the towns as republican or democratic it is meant that one or the other party has a majority of the board of selectmen. The returns so far received make East Hartford, Bloomfield, Newington, New Brighten, Meridan, demo-cratic, and West Hartford, republican. Hartford and New Havon are about evenly divided between the democrats and republicans. In East Connecticut there were slight but general republican gains.

THE INSURRECTION IN THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.—The situation of affairs in Buenos Ayres is desperate. The government is taking vigorous measures to suppress the insurrection. All the government offices and the commercial bouses have closed. The government has issued houses have closed. The government has issued an order extending the time on all commercial credits. One regiment of national troops has revolted and gone over to the insurgents. Foreigners are hastening to their respective conulates to get passports to protect them against the universal conscription which is to be en-

ADVENTURE ON A LONELY GEORGIA ROAD,-Mr. Wash Smith, of Witkinson county, Ga., was assaulted a few evenings ago, while driving along the road in his buggy, by a person dressed in woman's clothes, who sprang up behind his buggy and attempted to cut his throat with a knife. He warded off the knife with his hand and received a slight wound, and seizing his whip struck the assassin a blow with the staff, knocked her out of the buggy, and whipping his horse made his escape, the person running after the buggy some distance.

TRAGEDY IN MILWAUKEE.—The other even-ing Dr. J. Landorf, a German physician of Milwaukee, who had been residing in that city for some time, shot a woman who was living with him as his wife, in the heart, and then shot himself in the head. The woman was not married to him. She was from Chicago. She will probably recover, but he will die, as the ball is in his head and cannot be extracted. The fatal occurrence took place at his rooms, on the cor-ner of East Water and Division streets, in Mil-

WARTS BIS EXPENSES TO WASHINGTON PAID.—A novel case is on the docket of the Circuit Court to be held in Portsmouth, N. H., in a few days. The action is against John D. Swain, foreman of the iron-platers at that navail tation, by John C. Rider, who claims that Swain secured his appointment through his (Ricer's) influence with certain authorities in Washington; and rider further alleges that he expended $300 in traveling and incidental expense in going to Washington to get this appointment for Swain. He brings suit to recover his expenses.

The Convention of fire Chires.—The second annual convention of chief engineers of the fire departments of the variors cities of the Union met in St. Louis yesterday. H. Clay Sexton was elected president. After the appointment of committees the convention adjourned till to-day. THE SULTAN OF TURKEY has become reconciled to his nephew, Mohammed Murad Eftendi, the legal heir to the Turkish throne.

Traitorous Red Men. BIG TREE AND PARTY MADE PRISONERS OF

WAR. The reported disaffection of Satanta an ! Big Tree, the Klowa chiefs released about a year ago by Governor Davis, of Texas, on the recommendation of the federal authorities, on a solemn pledge that they would henceforth abstain from hostile acts against the government, would | seem to be confirmed by a dispatch received to day by the Commissioner of the Indian bu-reau from Agent Miles, of the Cheyenne and Arrapahoe agency, Indian territory. He writes, under date of the 30th ultime: "I have the honor to report the arrival at this agency last evening of twelve young Chevennes, headed by White Horse's brother, and seven Klowas, headed by Big Tree. To-day at roon they were all brought into my office, wherencon an invi-tation was given to General F H. Neil to be present at the interview. Big Tree informed is that he belonged to Satanta's band, which numbers at present twenty four lodges, and that they were camped near Red Hills, about thirty miles distant, and that he and his small par.y had come into the agency to ascertain whether their party (Satanta's) would be per-mitted to come in here and remain; that they did not want to go to Fort Sill, &c. The Chey ennes said they had been up north of the Arkansas, in the Smoky Hill country, "looking for wild horses." We regarded the whole party with suspicion. They were first requested to deliver up their arms, which they did, and were then made prisoners of war, subject to the direction of higher authority. The two Kiowa squaws have been permitted to return to the camp of Satanta and invite the whole party of Kiowas in on the same terms as Big Tree, they to surrender their arms and become of war. It is generally thought that Satanta will stampede when he hears of the fate of Big Tree and party."

The Beecher Scandal.

THE TILTON INDICTMENT. The publication of the indictment against Mr. Tiiton and Mr. Moulton made a deep impression upon the Brooklyn community. The argument made in Mr. Tilton's card in the Herald, that Mr. Beecher's action was a "tardy indictment," s controverted. A distinguished member of Plymouth church, in commenting on this, said to your reporter:

This indictment was as promptly found as was humanly possible. Tilton has been indicted by the first grand jury that has sat in Kings county since the publication of his libelons statement, addressed to the public over his own rame. The publication of his sworn statement, Mr. Tilton averred, and no doubt Mr. Maverick will so swear, was without his knowledge or consent, and the Gaynor farce was met by that plea. The accusation in Plymouth church by West was for slander, which is not an indictable offense, not for libel, which is the publication of slander. So that on the first ndictable offense Tilton was indicted at the first opportunity, which is prompt enough."

THE ARRAY OF COUNSEL in the Tilton case will be unusually large. Probably no such array has been seen in any trial since the trial of General Sickles for the murder of Key. Roscoe Conkling has acceptd a retainer and will sum up the case. M. Evarts, B. F. Tracy, John K. Porter, W. O. Bartlett, John Graham and T. S. Sherman will assist Mr. Conkling. The list of Mr. Titton's counsel is said not to be complete. Senator Carpenter, of Wisconsin, Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia, and David Dudley Field are mentioned. Mr. Moulton has secured Judge Fulerion, although Gen. Butler will take the lead in the case and personally appear. Mr. Beach will most likely appear also.

A motion will be made for a change of venue. This is a matter in the discretion of the court. A motion will be made for a certiorari to carry he case before the supreme court. This, we believe, is a motion of right, and an effort will hen be made to remove the case to Albany or Westchester. It is thought the trial will take place in a fortnight, and it will probably last or three or four weeks. A rumor was in circulation, and traced to a good source, that President Grant had expressed the strongest interest in behalf of Mr. Beecher, and to the President's nterest is attributed the retainer of Mr. Conkling. It is generally believed also that Mr Tilton himself will address the jury in his own chalf. Mr. Tilton has a rare gift of eloquence and he will have this privilege .- N. Y. Her-

THE ELECTIONS IN FRANCE.—Sufficient returns of the elections in France for the councils general have been received to indicate the reults in about seven hundred councilor districts. The republicans have lost many seats, particuarly in Fenistere, Nicore, Charente, Infenerise. Gironde and Vancluse. In the councils of the two last departments they have lost their former majorities, and will be unable to nominate the presidents of those bodies, as heretofore. The Bonapartists have almost everywhere profited by these reverses. The monarchists have made very little progress. The conservatives have been unsuccessful in eight out of twelve districts in the department of Indre et Loire. The republicans, however, have gained several seats in Cotes du Nord, Ille et Villaine, Somme Nord and Oise. Eighty members of the right in the national assembly and seventy of the left sought for election to the councils general. About thirty of the right, including M. Hachtjers, a Bonapartist, and twenty of the left, including Millard and Busson, radicals, were defeated. The Marquis de Noailles was elected at Bayonne on the republican ticket. M. M. Depeyre, Deichighny and Magne, members of the late Broglie ministry, and M Baragnan have been successful. A second ballot will be required in he department of Sarthe, where Caillaux, minster of public works, was a candidate. It is believed that the final result will show that little bange, on the whole, has been made in the poitical complexion of the councils, the gains of he republicans balancing their losses.

THE JAY COOKE & CO. BANKEUPTCY CASE THE JAY CHOKE & CO. BANKRUPTCY Case came up in the United States Circuit Court in Philadelphia yesterday, upon the petition of Edwin M. Lewis, trustee, and John Clayton and others, the committee of creditors, who tate that they believe that the management of the estate is, by law, out of the Bankruptey Court, yet, upon the 11th of September, upon the retition of a creditor, without notice to the the petition of a creditor, without notice to the petitioners, praying, among others things, that a dividend be declared, Judge Cadwalader made an order for the calling of a meeting on the 6th of October. They say that no adequate or sufficient reason for such order was shown by said petition, that no opjortunity was given to them, that the court had no power to make such order, and, therefore, they prayed the court to reseind it. After reading the foregoing petition, Judge Strong called upon Judge Cad valader to make known to the court his reasons for making the order which is the subject of review. Judge Cadwalader then read a lengthy paper the substance of which was that the trustee, under the fourth section, had no more power and was no more exempt from accountability than an assignee, and that the order was strictly within the bank act. After argument by counsel the matter was held under advisement.

KU-KLUX OUTRAGE IN TEXAS.—A special from Denison, Texas, via St. Louis, gives an account of an outrage committed on several citizens of St. Joseph, Montague county, who were visited by armed masked men on the night of September 25, and threatened with their ives if they did not leave town in twenty-tour hours. They left next day under guard of United States officers. Yesterday the refugees thed states officers. Testerday the retages tiled complaints against twenty-two of the gaug whom they could identify, and warrants were issued for their arrest. The object of the out-rage was to prevent the appearance of these men in court as witnesses against certain par-

RACING AT NASHVILLE, TENN.—The fall meeting of the Nashville Blood-horse association commenced yesterday. The race for a dash of one and a quarter miles was won by King Pin in 2:13, beating Astral second, and Noll third. This was the exciting race of the day, and was hotly contested. The rider of King Pin claimed and proved a foul against Elkhorn, for which the latter was ruled out and the race given to the former. the race given to the former.

MESSES. HENRY CLEWS & Co. have decided in fairness to their customers, to suspend for a day or two the receiving of deposits, and have transferred remittances received during the past few days to the custody of the Continental bank and credit of those who remitted them. The firm do this as a prudential matter, though a much larger loan than the £100,000 already negotiated in London is expected in a few days.

Working Sundays.—"I make my money work Sundays, if I don't work myself," said a New York merchant who, having received a large remittance on Saturday, invested it at once in good, interest-bearing paper. It is so with advertisements. He who invests in them knows that they are working day, night and Sunday without breaking a commandment or creating a risk. creating a risk. Science in England and France.—Mr. Norman Locker, the English astronomer, whom the Academy of Sciences has named correspondent of that section, has arrived in Paris, and on Monday took possession of his seat at the institute. He is charged by the British government to make an inquiry into the state of meteorology in France, and has already spent a day at the observatory.

The Fitch-Sherman Bridal Party at Church in New York St. Bridget's Roman Catholic church, corner of avenue B and 8th street, was the scene yesterday morning of such a crush as is rarely witnessed even within the walls of a Catholic church. The occasion was the celebration of a solemn high mass, but the special attraction was the fact that Lieutenant and Mrs. Fitch (nee Sherman) were expected to be present. Lieutenant Fitch was born and brought up in St. Bridget's parish. It was in St. Bridget's church he received his first communion, and in her parochial school the groundwork of his education was laid. As early as 10 o'clock the church was crowded. The galleries were crammed and the alses closely packed. Seats had been reserved for the bridal party, but it soon became a problem as to bow they were to get became a problem as to how they were to get to them. About a quarter to 11 o'clock the mother and sister of the groom took their seats, and the orchestra struck up the wedding march. A passage way was forced for the bride and oom through the center aisle, and this was the signal of such a rush to see the young couple as would have disgraced a secular place of amusement. Father Mooney was justly indignant, and in a few terse and well chosen remarks rebuked those persons who had no respect for the house of God, and who were present merely to gratify their curiosity. About half-past 11 the ceremony of the mass was com-menced. Father Thomas J. Mooney, pastor of the church, was the celebrant; Father John Lynch, deacon; Father John Kane, of the cathedral, sub-deacon, and Father John Salter, of the cathedral master of ceremonies. The mass chosen for the occasion was that magnificent production, Mozart's Twelfth, and the superb manner in which it was rendered will long be remembered by all who had the privi-lege of hearing it. The choir consisted of Signor G. Gueli, organist and director; Mrs. A. Jawarski, coprano; Mrs. Geisdorff and Mrs. Zhubsch, altos; Signors Adams and Barbens, bassos; Messrs. A. Exkorm and Cannon, Signor C. Caccinola, baritone; extra tenor, Signor Lotto. They were assisted by a full chorus and the orchestral part of Grafulla's band. Indeed, the musical arrangements were perfect in every respect. The rich tones of the organ, the clear, ringing voices of the choir, combined with the inspiriting strains of the band, poured forth a volume of melody that seemed to thrill even the very walls of the sanctuary. During the service the choir also rendered the "Hallelujah Chorus," by Handel. The altar was brilliantly illuminated, the robes of the officiating priests of the most elegant and elaborate designs, just imported from Italy, and the ceremony was most impressive. At the conclusion of the Credo Father Mooney preached on the immortality of the soul, taking his text from the six-teenth chapter of Matthew. Before entering upon his discourse, Father Mooney, in a few appropriate remarks, assured the bride and groom, their relations and friends of their being cordially welcome at St. Bridget's Church. The text of the sermon was "For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul, or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul."

After the mass finished, the bridal party, which consisted of the bride and groom, Mrs. Fitch, sr., and the brother of the groom, Miss Maria Patterson, Miss Lizzie Sherman, Miss Phillips, Mr. Thomas Sherman and several other friends pass of through the vestry of the church to the pastor's residence, where they were entertained for a short time and received congratulations. Mrs. Fitch was dressed in gray silk, lightly trimmed with black, and large black buttons on the polonaise. A black lace scarf was thrown carelessly around her neck, and her head was adorned with a black velvet hat, trimmed with gray silk, to match the dress, the sombre hues relieved by a small light blue ostrich plame. Gloves were worn a shade lighter than the color of her dress. Outside of the parsonage an immense crowd, which the combined efforts of several policemen could scarcely control, had gatinered to catch a parting glimpse of the bride and groom.-N. Y. Herald, 5th. GOV. BROWNLOW'S CAED .- GOV. Brownlow's card, announcing himself a candidate for Congress at the coming election, reads: "I take this occasion to say to the voters of the second congressional district of Tennessee that I am a candidate to represent them in the next or Forty-fourth Congress of the United States. I make this announcement in response to the pocitions and calls made upon me by large numhers of citizens in every county of the district. If elected, I promise to do all in my power to promote the interests of the district, state, and country. In a short time I will publish an address to the people of the district, giving my views and intentions with reference to every measure now pending or likely to come before Congress during the next two years." There is dready a republican candidate, regularly nominated, in the field in that district. THE CONGREGATIONA COUNCIL.—A telegram from New Haven, Conn., says: "The Congregational Council before adjournment disposed of all the resolutions concerning the consolidation of the philanthropic and religious societies; passed the seventh resolution, advising the Congregational society to be disembarrassed of all work incongruous with a business enterprise, with a view to the publication of Sunday-school literature of a high order; also passed the substitute for the eighth resolution, declaring it advisable to consolidate the various may azines, and indefinitely postponed the ninth resolution, which provided for the appointment of a committee to aid in consummating the consolidation and to report at the next council. Saturday evening the Rev. Mr. Beard read a paper on 'The Development of the Latent Power in Our Churches.'"

A COURTSHIP ENDED BY SUICIDE INSTRAD OF MARRIAGE - Coroner Eickhoff yesterday commenced an investigation in the case of Andrew F. Pickens, aged 27, of Middleborough. Mass., who committed suicide on Saturday at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, corner of New Bowery and Chatham square, by taking laudanum. It appears that Pickens was formerly a clerk in this city, during which time he became acquainted with a young girl residing on Long Island. The deceased left home last week with the intention of getting married. Something, however, transpired which prevented the marriage from taking place. This is supposed to have affected Pickens' mind and caused him to commit suicide. The father of deceased arrived in this city yesterday and will take the body of his son home to-day.—N. Y. Star, 5th.

THE MENNONITES IN KANSAS .- The following paragraph is from the Lawrence (Kansas) Journal of September 27: "There appears to be no mistake about the immense immigration of Mennonites into Kansas, of which the telegraph has been advising us for the past few days. Their advertisement in our local column for a large number of work horses, oxen, and cows indicates business. About two thousand of these people have come into the state in the last few weeks, and thousands more are on the way. They are a hardy, industrious, weil-tc-do class of people, and will be a valuable acquisi-tion to our population." The advertisement referred to calls for five hundred head of work horses, four hundred fresh milch cows, and fifty yoke of work oxen.

SPREAD OF THE CATTLE DISEASE. More than one hundred fatal cases of the cattle dis-ease are reported at New Haven to date, and the disease has broken out in the towns of Staf-ford and Tarriffville, Conn. A letter from T. S. Gold, secretary of the Connecticut Board of Agriculture, reports several deaths in the north-ern part of that state from the true Texan catthe disease. The authorities were not aware of the presence of the disease until several animal-had died and others of the same herd had been killed and sold for beef. PRISON REFORM IN MASSACHUSETTS .- The prison reform meetings in Temple Hall, Boston, which were begun last spring, resumed on Sunday. John P. Augustus compared the prison systems of other states to the detriment of that in force in Massachusetts. Mr. Lincoln related scenes, of which he was an eye-witness, in the management of the South Boston House of Correction, which he considered a disgrace to humanity.

A FRARFUL ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—William H. Curran, of Mansfield, Ohio, attempted suicide on Friday night by opening arteries with a small pocket knife. When found next morning he was covered with blood, which flowed from forty wounds in the throat, arms, chest and legs. He will probably recover. The alleged cause for the act is business reverses. PRINCESS THYRA, of Denmark, is to marry a son of the ex-king of Hanover, and a special dispatch supplements it with a rumor that Bismarck has asked for explanations of the proposed alliance.

WHY NO BUPPALO ARE FOUND WAST OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS.—Somebody has revived the stories told by James Bridger, who is, next to Kit Carson, the pioneer trapper of all that section of the country. One of his favorite stories was, that in the year 1820 he was wintering in Sait Lake Valley, when it commenced to snow, and continued seventy successive days, till a depth of seventy feet was obtained. The country at that time abounded in buffale and other large game, all of which per-ished in the snow. The lakes and rivers the following spring were so full of dead game, pre-served in good condition in the cold, that he was able to stow up a large stock of meat for the next winter's supply, using the brine of Salt Lake for the purpose. He concluded this tale by declaring that since that storm to buffalo had ever been seen west of the Rocky Mountains. He was also fond of declaring that "Bridger's Buite," a table mountain named after him, had "steered around" to the north since he first saw it, and that he had told General Johnson so, who, after consulting his text books, acknowledged that he was right .- Den-

She said that she came alone to this country from England in Decem-ber last, and after boarding for some days in a hotel found employment with a dressmaker in Seventh avenue. Five days before her marriage she saw young Lang for the first time, and on Sunday night last they were married. He abused her, she said, and she threatened to quit his bed and board, at which he attenuated to quit her throat. Lang was held in tempted to cut her throat. Lang was held in
